……

Hon. P.C. Verma, J.

This writ petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking a writ of certiorari to quash the impugned order of transfer contained in annexure-1 to the writ petition. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the transfer order has been passed not in conformity/ compliance of the order passed by this court. Earlier by order dated 3.1.2001 this court expected from Cane Commissioner to pass transfer order keeping in mind the seniority of the petitioner. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that due to the hard work of the petitioner the Cooperative Cane Union Doiwala which was running in loss, is not running in profit.

The petitioner no doubt is a senior most person and on account of his hard work and efficiency he has been given the task to make a new cociety functional effectively. the authorities have provided facilities to the petitioner and have allow him to run newly created society having its camp office at Roorkee to avail the services of the petitioner in larger public interest. Thus I do not find any good ground for interference.

The writ petition is dismissed.
